

Sheryl (Sherry) McNeill, C'79 has held several management roles in the Information Technology (IT) industry and financial positions in various non-profit organizations. She is employed as a deputy project manager for Perspecta, Inc. where she has held several positions over a period of more than 35 years receiving numerous awards and recognition for her leadership and management skills. In her current position, she is leading an IT project at a government agency where they are updating a legacy computer system to an off-the-shelf Electronic Records System requiring some customizations to the software in order to work in the agency's infrastructure. She earned her Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree in 2007 in a program that allowed her to travel to New Delhi, India for a period of three weeks as part of a Business Strategy course. She has continued to develop her financial and organizational skills by serving as a volunteer in other organizations. She served as NAASC treasurer during the 2018-2020 biennium and has held positions of the treasurer for MCAC DST; treasurer of the NAACP Washington, DC Branch; assistant treasurer NAACP Washington, DC Branch; and financial secretary of the NAASC Metro DC Chapter for three years. Sherry has worked on the Loving Me Girls Committee, a signature event for the NAASC Metro DC Chapter for six years serving as the chair of the facility committee, and in 2011 was awarded the chapter's Alumna of the Year Award.